

Cash Allowances

Lots of cash sometimes means a lot.

The currency checks when passing through customs are not intended to cause you any inconvenience, but to prevent money from illegal transactions and criminal activities from being brought into the country. If you are carrying cash or cash equivalents worth 10,000 euros or more, you are therefore required to report it to the customs officials. This includes valuables such as checks, letters of credit, precious metals and jewelry.