Over 50 million people in view.

Frankfurt Airport City is a world of myriad encounters and an ideal advertising platform. More than 50 million air passengers and three to four million visitors and shoppers a year, plus 11 million potential consumers within a radius of 100 km and tens of thousands of employees make this a prime location for marketing-oriented strategies and concepts. Besides your target group, you'll also find competent, specialized advertising consultants ready to apply their extensive expertise to devising tailored concepts for you: either for direct display or for the Airport City's online network. Count on us to help you achieve your goals!
