

Flight schedules

From the Whole World to the Whole World.

In the airfreight business, all paths lead to or through Frankfurt, Germany. All parts of Europe can be reached from there in three hours or less by air, and it takes only hours longer to get to anywhere else in the world. In CargoCity you've found the cargo airport with the demand-driven flight schedules you need to connect daily with the world's major economic centers. From here, 122 airlines have 4,635 scheduled flights a week serving 281 destinations in 108 different countries around the globe. No fewer than 255 all-cargo flights a week serve 89 destinations in 45 countries. What are you looking for?
